

THE MONEY GAME · MODULE 1

MY CARD

THE VOICE OF THE BEAST, in my own words.

THE RULE

Off-plan is any trade that was not in my strategy. Not smaller. Not less often. Zero. Close the chart. Stand up, walk, do push-ups.

THE CARD

1 MY OFF-PLAN DEFINITION

Off-plan is any trade that was not in my strategy. Not smaller. Not less often. Zero.

2 MY TWO TRIGGERS

Boredom

Urgency

3 MY TELL

My jaw sets and my hand drifts toward the mouse before there is anything to click.

4 WHAT I DO INSTEAD

Close the chart. Stand up, walk, do push-ups.

5 MY OFF-PLAN RESULT, 12 MONTHS

Every trade outside my plan in the last twelve months, winners and losers, added up: net minus 1200$. Counted, from my statements.

MY GATE

Four questions in the gap between the thought and the click. Three yeses and one no open the gate. Anything else keeps it closed.

|--|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1 Is this actually one of my setups? | ☐ YES | ☐ NO |
| 2 Is the asymmetry there, the reward worth the risk? | ☐ YES | ☐ NO |
| 3 Is the risk already defined, in currency, before I enter? | ☐ YES | ☐ NO |
| 4 If this trade disappeared right now, would I be emotionally disturbed? | ☐ YES | ☐ NO |

THE CONTRACT

After any off-plan trade I close the position, and I am done for the day. Not because I lost. Because the trade was not in my plan.

A plan in the head negotiates. A plan on paper testifies.
